SDC Security Door Controls

SECURITY DOOR CONTROLS IP PRO™ CLASS

Learn How To Install and Program
The SDC IP Pro™ Access Control System

IP Pro™ is a complete line of low power, professional grade door access control solutions – all easily connected and powered by ordinary Ethernet network cables providing incredible flexibility and cost savings when installing access control.

- Review of PoE capable locking hardware
- IP Pro™ feature and benefits
- Hands on wiring of IP Pro
- Hands on software implementation
- Q&A

MARK THE DATE: September 15, 2015

Location: Access Hardware Supply
14447 Griffith Street, San Leandro, CA 94577

ESA ELECTRONIC SECURITY ASSOCIATION®
ESA ACCREDITED
2 Credits

2 CLASSES AVAILABLE
10am -12pm • 1pm - 3pm

$15 Class Fee Includes Lunch
12pm-1pm

AHS ACCESS HARDWARE SUPPLY

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this training course, participants will:

- Become familiar with SDC's full line of energy-efficient, PoE capable locking hardware
- Understand the primary components required to build an access control system using an IP Pro™ system
- Be able to install and configure an IP Pro™ Controller and SDC IPRW Wiegand Card Reader
- Be able to establish communications with the IP Pro™ Controller over a simple network
- Be able to program the IP Pro™ Controller for a single user credential, user group, and user schedule, using the built-in web server interface

Note: Group Training Method
Bring Your Own PC.
Software Implementation Will Require The Use of a Windows-Based Laptop

Who Should Attend?
Professionals involved with installation, configuration, and design of physical security, access control products

Contact Rhonda to reserve your spot:
800-413-8783 or rhonda@sdcsecurity.com